

What We Will Be Learning

Bon Appetit :: God's Recipe for Your Life

John 1:12 tells us that “to all who did receive Him, He gave them the right to be children of God, to those who believe in His name...” Kids understand what it means to be a kid in our world. They understand how to handle school and family responsibilities. They know how they like to have fun, and they know what they are allowed to do and what they aren't. But, what does it mean to be a child of God? In the Summer of 2010, that's the question we'll answer at CentriKid Camps. We're going to look at what it means for us that the Lord calls us His children. We'll concentrate on the fact that He has adopted us as His own. We'll look at the ways He is constantly changing us and molding us for His purposes. We'll look at the fact that He has made each of us incredibly unique. Most of all, we'll learn to just celebrate the fact that He is our God, and we are His kids...

Session Focus:

Opening Day :: Who am I? We are called to be children of God. He has called us out of the world and called us to be His. On this night, we'll lay the foundation for our study throughout the week.

Day 1 :: I am Adopted Today, we'll take a look at David's adoption of Jonathan's son, Mephibosheth. This adoption was completely as a result of David's unmerited generosity towards the family of Jonathan. Likewise, because of Christ, God has graciously adopted us as His children, even when we did nothing to earn it. He has given us all the rights and benefits of children of God.

Day 2 :: I am Being Changed Today, we'll take a look at one of the most changed lives in all of Scripture...Simon Peter. Because of His relationship with Jesus, Peter's life was changed in almost every way. We'll look at what it means to be a new creation because of our relationship with Christ.

Day 3 :: I am Unique Today, we're going to take a look at the life of one of the heroes of the Old Testament...Joseph. This was a kid who was unique in many ways: he was favored by his father; he had strange dreams; he wore a colorful coat, etc. Yet, because of his relationship with God, he was confident in who he was and who he was made to be.

Closing Day :: Go and Do Likewise We want to challenge campers to go back to "normal" life and to live as ambassadors for Christ. By living a life in line with God's Word, we spread His love through our world back home.
